

It is a company created and integrated by Kalima del Drago González Hernández and Manuel Díaz Betancort (Lolo Guayota). Born in 2015, it mixes circus, theater and music techniques to create and represent original artistic works.

ORIGIN: Comedia De*Sastre was born after a long backpacking and bicycle trip through South America, from the experiences lived and the need to work for a better world.

In 2015 in Santiago de Chile, its two founders, Kalima del Drago and Lolo Guayota, both from the Canary Islands, began their artistic apprenticeship in the "Gran Circo Teatro" Company of maestro Andrés Pérez Araya, director, actor and playwright.

Comedia De*Sastre stands out for the message and background of each of its works, which are a fundamental part of its idiosyncrasy. Culture, and therefore theater and circus, serve as a tool to improve the society in which we live.

With one foot in the Canary Islands and another in Argentina, this company is growing and creating its own identity. They dedicate many years to training in the research of acrobatic carrying and dramatic art.
